Gift Aid Declaration

- There is no cost to you. Helping Hands in Uganda reclaims the tax you have paid on the amounts you give.
- There is no minimum or maximum on gifts. We add together all recorded gifts in one financial year (to 31 March) and claim the tax back on that total amount (25p for every pound given, when the tax rate is 20%)
- If money is collected for a specific purpose and that purpose is over-subscribed or does not go ahead for any reason, then the funds are allocated to the general funds of Helping Hands in Uganda.
- Higher rate taxpayers can claim additional tax relief via their tax return.
- It is your responsibility to check that you pay sufficient tax to cover the reclaim on your giving. Unless you pay a minimal amount of tax, this is unlikely to be a problem.
- If you are not, or cease to be, a taxpayer, please let us know.
- You are entitled to cancel the Gift Aid Declaration at any time. Please inform us in writing.

I would like Helping Hands in Uganda to reclaim tax on all donations I have made to them and all donations I make hereafter. It is my responsibility to remember to notify Helping Hands in Uganda if I no longer pay an amount of income tax or capital gains tax equal to the tax reclaimed on my donations.

Helping Hands in Uganda is a charity registered in England & Wales no.1113418
